

Duke City Bridge Club presents:
Advanced Declarer Play
Teacher: Jim Munday

You're at the wheel of the deal. How do you make the magic happen? Intended for intermediate+ to advanced players, this four-session class delves into the successful declarer's thought process and teaches tricks for maximum trick taking.

Schedule: Four consecutive Mondays in June, 10:30 a.m.—noon.

Cost: $60 for four sessions.

Location: Duke City Bridge Club, 8616 Northeastern Blvd. NE, Albuquerque

Jim is an ACBL Grand Life Master who serves as the technical editor for the ACBL Bridge Bulletin and as an online investigator for BBO. He has captained U.S. Bridge Federation Junior squads competing in China and Italy, and is an occasional teacher, mentor, lecturer and vugraph commentator.

Monday, June 3: It's all in the timing. Thinking (and then playing) at trick one.

Monday, June 10: Placing honors. Developing and updating your picture of the opponents' hands as play continues.

Monday, June 17: Card combinations. Knowing the percentages helps you make the most of your holdings. Recognize how the auction and previous play impact those percentages.

Monday, June 24: Squeezes and endplays and coups, oh my! The fun stuff – how to plan and execute these techniques.

Reserve your seat now by emailing the club at DCBCbridge@gmail.com

Duke City Bridge Club
8616 Northeastern Blvd. NE, Albuquerque
505-271-2877
dukecitybridge.com

